Content

The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) conducted limited rehabilitation at the airfields in Voinjama and Zwedru in November 2003. ICRC is maintaining offices with international staff presence in these two cities.

ICRC is currently operating a Beechcraft King Air 200 from Spriggs Payne Airport. ICRC flies to Voinjama and Zwedru on Tuesday and Friday. Presently, these flights only accommodate ICRC staff. Any requests for consideration to personnel other than those of ICRC, contact should be made with: Jordi Raich, Deputy Head of Delegation, Tel: + 377 47 527859.

Below are photographs of the repairs to the airstrip in Voinjama provided by ICRC:
