The EVD Logistics Technical Working Group is one of the core technical pillars formed upon request by the National Task Force to ensure logistics efforts are coordinated at national and state levels in preparation for a potential Ebola outbreak in South Sudan. This working group is led by the Logistics Cluster through WFP, co-led by WHO, and supported by the Ministry of Health.