The road from Mwansa-Thambani (S137) is reported to have 3 mt capacity. (Source: Roads Authority)

The road to Mbalula-Malombe-Masanje River (T388) is reported to have 5 mt capacity. (Source: Roads Authority)

The road to Nambura is reported accessible by 4x4 (Source: Malawi Red Cross)

The road from Mwansa-Thambani (S137) is reported to have 3 mt capacity. (Source: Roads Authority)

The road to Nambura is reported accessible by 4x4 (Source: Malawi Red Cross)

Mkawakwazi Bridge on the road from Mbelenga to Weremu has collapsed. Limphangwi and Nampati Bridges on the road to Weremu has collapsed. Mkwakwazi Bridge on the road from Mbelenga to Weremu has collapsed. Limphangwi and Nampati Bridges on the road to Weremu has collapsed. (Source: Roads Authority)

The road to Mbalula-Malombe-Masanje River (T388) is reported to have 5 mt capacity. (Source: Roads Authority)

The road from Mbalula-Malombe-Masanje River (T388) is reported to have 5 mt capacity. (Source: Roads Authority)

Makande camp in Mulanje (-15.8052, 35.4671) is reported to be only accessible by 4x4 (max 5 mt). (Source: WFP)

East Bank Road is now reported to be accessible with 4x4 vehicles up to Ruo River (coordinates: -16.484, 35.176), however road conditions remain challenging. (Source: WFP)

Mazongosa (-16.3062, 34.9592) is only accessible by air and boat. Please note, the road that leads towards the base for Mazongosa boat operations from the M11 highway (coordinates: -16.573, 35.119), is currently only accessible with 4x4 vehicles (5 mt capacity). (Source: WFP)

Makanga (-16.5192, 35.179), Chigwamafumfu (-16.3113,35.1024) and Chikali in TA Molo are only accessible by air and boat. Please note, once items arrive, limited road transport capacity to communities on the eastern side of the Shire River remains a challenge for the delivery of items. (Source: WFP)

Makanga (-16.5192, 35.179), Chigwamafumfu (-16.3113,35.1024) and Chikali in TA Molo are only accessible by air and boat. Please note, once items arrive, limited road transport capacity to communities on the eastern side of the Shire River remains a challenge for the delivery of items. (Source: WFP)