Air Niugini: Air Niugini is pleased to announce that it will resume services between Port Moresby and Hong Kong, commencing Wednesday 30th September 2020.

Air Tahiti: All Tahitian flights are suspended due to the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak. For more information, please visit the airline’s official website.

Air Tahiti Nui: The airline is operating flights to and from Tahiti, with reduced frequencies. For detailed information, please refer to the airline’s official website.

Air Vanuatu: Air Vanuatu was granted approval by NEMD to operate a series of international freighter (cargo) services from August to December 2020. For more information, please visit the airline’s official website.

Asian Airlines: See link.

Asiana Airlines: See link.

Asiana Airlines: See link.

Cathay Pacific: See link.

China Airlines: See link.

Fiji Airways: On 21st October, Fiji Airways announced the resumption of flights to Nadi and Los Angeles. The airline is exploring repatriation flight options between Nadi and Los Angeles. For more information, please refer to the airline’s official website.

Fiji Airways: On 21st October, Fiji Airways announced the resumption of flights to Nadi and Los Angeles. The airline is exploring repatriation flight options between Nadi and Los Angeles. For more information, please refer to the airline’s official website.

French Bee: On 20th October, French Bee announced the resumption of flights between Paris and Nadi. The airline will operate repatriation flights between Paris and Nadi, operating each week. For more information, please refer to the airline’s official website.

Inter Island Airways: See link.

Japan Airlines: See link.

JetStar: On 20th October, JetStar announced the resumption of flights between New Zealand and Australia. The airline is operating flights on a weekly basis. For more information, please refer to the airline’s official website.

Japan Airlines: See link.

Korean Air: Korean Air has reduced or suspended some of its routes due to the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak. For more information, please visit the airline’s official website.

Lion Air: On 20th October, Lion Air announced the resumption of flights between Jakarta and Doha. The airline will operate repatriation flights between Jakarta and Doha, operating each week. For more information, please refer to the airline’s official website.

Manu’a Airways (Samoa): See link.

Manu’a Airways (Samoa): See link.

Mauritius: See link.

Qantas: On 20th October, Qantas announced the resumption of flights between Sydney and Tokyo. The airline will operate repatriation flights between Sydney and Tokyo, operating each week. For more information, please refer to the airline’s official website.

Royal Jordanian Airline: On 20th October, Royal Jordanian announced the resumption of flights between Amman and Dubai. The airline will operate repatriation flights between Amman and Dubai, operating each week. For more information, please refer to the airline’s official website.

Samoa Airways: See link.

SkyMark: On 20th October, SkyMark announced the resumption of flights between Tokyo and Sydney. The airline will operate repatriation flights between Tokyo and Sydney, operating each week. For more information, please refer to the airline’s official website.

Solomon Airlines: Solomon Airlines has confirmed its continued commitment to safeguarding the health and medical safety of its customers and staff once border restrictions ease and international flights resume. For more information, please refer to the airline’s official website.

Virgin Australia: Virgin Australia has suspended all international flights until at least the end of November 2020. For more information, please refer to the airline’s official website.