

LOGISTICS TRAINING & LOCALISATION

The Logistics Cluster aims to strengthen capacity by working with partners to establish and facilitate tailored emergency logistics training across the Pacific region.

ASSESSMENT

Through a Training Needs Assessment (TNA), determine emergency logistics strengths and gaps and devise tailored training with national partners.

DELIVERY

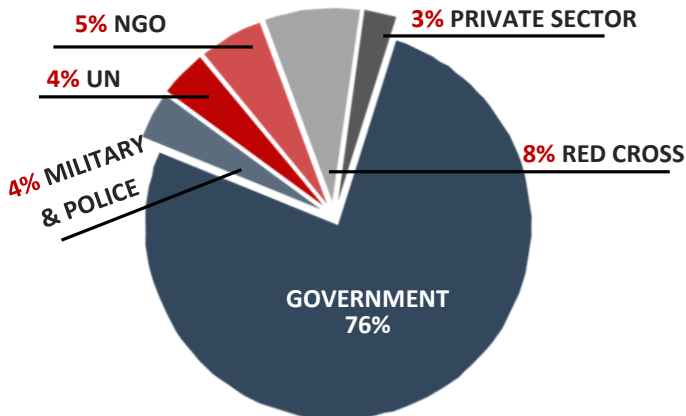

Establish an emergency logistics workshop based on TNA findings, and deliver training in collaboration with the National Disaster Management Office (NDMO) and partners.

SUSTAINABILITY

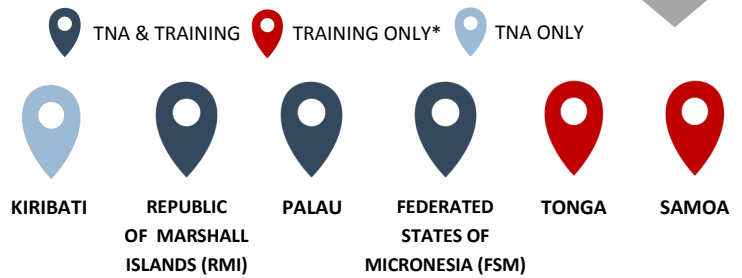

Transfer training and workshop material to NDMO as an ongoing strengthening tool and resource for further capacity development.

MOVING FORWARD SIMULATIONS IN 2018

In 2018 the Pacific Logistics Cluster will remain focused on the localisation agenda and increasing emergency logistics capacity in the Pacific region.

Following the completion of nine TNAs and eight logistics trainings over the 2016-2017 period, 2018 will shift to a focus on simulations and preparedness.

The simulations are designed to allow participants to apply their skills, put their logistics training into practice and continue development on key concepts applicable to the Pacific region.

The outcomes from the simulation will also assist in further refining individual country priorities.

TRAINING RESOURCES

A STANDARD LOGISTICS HANDBOOK WAS USED FOR EVERY TRAINING. EACH PARTICIPANT WAS GIVEN A HARD COPY OF THE REFERENCE BOOK.

Participant feedback

"THANK YOU FOR AN AMAZING WORKSHOP. IT WAS AN EYE OPENER. MANY THINGS TO BE CONSIDERED AND NOTED."

- TANYA O. RENGULBAI, ADMINISTRATION OFFICER NATIONAL EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT OFFICE, PALAU

"IS WAS A GOOD "REFRESHER" FOR OUR LOCAL LOGISTICIANS. EVEN IF THEY KNOW THE SURROUNDINGS, IT'S ALWAYS GOOD TO BE AWARE OF THE INTERNATIONAL PRACTICES HAPPENING AROUND THE WORLD."

- TIMMY LANGRINE, DIRECTOR NATIONAL DISASTER MANAGEMENT OFFICE, RMI
