Notice Regarding Support for Search, Rescue and Relief Materials

Due to the severe flood in the Bhotekoshi area of Rasuwa, significant loss of life and property has occurred, and search, rescue and relief-management activities are continuously underway. To make search and rescue operations more effective and to provide relief quickly and efficiently to affected households, the search, rescue and relief materials listed below are considered necessary.

Interested donor agencies and international development partners may provide search, rescue and non-food relief materials. Other organizations, civil society groups, the private sector and others may provide search, rescue, food and non-food relief materials.

Materials received by air may be delivered to the Emergency Warehouse at Tribhuvan International Airport. Materials received by road may be delivered, in coordination with the relevant authorities, to the Nepal Police Disaster Response and Training Center, Samakhusi, Kathmandu; Maithili Barracks, Battar, Nuwakot; the District Administration Office, Dhunche, Rasuwa; or the relevant District Administration Office/local level.

Contact persons have been designated for coordination regarding the receipt, dispatch and distribution of search, rescue and relief materials. If materials other than those listed in the details below are to be provided, the details of the proposed materials must first be sent to the Authority at ndrrma@gmail.com. Such materials may be provided only after the Authority gives consent.
