The Afghanistan Logistics Working Group (LWG) was founded to bring together humanitarian and development actors to jointly identify and mitigate supply chain gaps and risks and focuses on:

Mapping logistics gaps and identifying organizations and local capacities to address them.

Coordinating among organizations and stakeholders

Sharing logistics information to support decision-making and assist with efficient responses.

Addressing common challenges and issues in an action-oriented, solutions-based approach.

How Does the Afghanistan Logistics Working Group Accomplish This:

Conducting Needs Assessments and Gap Analyses

Convening regular inter-agency coordination meetings to discuss relevant issues and share information.

Disseminating information, creating maps, maintaining dedicated website, Teams & Whatsapp groups, etc.

Identifying resources and service providers for logistics needs

Conduct and facilitating trainings
